

I support this petition as I believe its recommendations will help the amateur radio service continue to provide trained operators and technicians. It will also help address some of the problems that have been observed since restructuring of the licensing system.